DESCRIPTION

The property is a pretty, period, semi-detached cottage with brick, stone and part tile-hung elevations under a tiled roof and accommodation over two floors. The layout of the house can be seen in the floorplan but of particular note is the tremendous large main reception room with a log burner and an extended dining area with double doors leading outside. The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with matching floor and wall mounted units and there's enough room for a family sized breakfast table. Towards the rear of the house is a utility room and downstairs shower room with WC. From the hall, stairs rise to the first floor landing, off which are three bedrooms, all of which are large enough for double beds and a recently fitted bathroom. From the main bedroom, there's a balcony overlooking the garden which is an ideal spot for your morning coffee. Outside, the house is accessed by a shared drive through electric gates which lead to a further set of electric gates taking you to the private drive for this property where there's a parking area and an oak framed, barn-style double carport with storage above.. The main garden is laid to lawn and there's a paved terrace and mature shrubs, enclosed by hedging which offers complete privacy. Being on the western side of the house, the garden is perfect for unwinding during the long summer afternoons. To fully appreciate this beautifully presented character home, an internal viewing is strongly recommended.
