This charming cottage offers spacious and well-presented accommodation, including three double bedrooms, two reception rooms, kitchen, bathroom and shower room.

window, and could be converted to additional accommodation subject to necessary planning.

The property has been sympathetically renovated by the current owners and retains a wealth of its original characteristics and charm including high ceilings, large sash windows and flagstone flooring as well as a new natural Welsh slate roof which was replaced in 2022. As you enter the property, there is a staircase entrance hall which gives access to the first floor, living room and kitchen/dining room. The dining room is a beautifully light room with a large window to side elevation and is fitted with a multi fuel Rayburn, perfect for cozy winter evenings.

Outside, the property benefits from ample parking and car port, gardens with seating area and newly installed patio made from limestone with Victorian style veranda over. The gardens extend to just over an acre and are divided into separate areas including vegetable gardens, well stocked flower beds as well as a paddock which is currently being used to keep sheep. There is a stable block with tack room, ideal for anyone wanting to keep animals or as additional storage space. There is also hayshed which has water and electricity supply and a greenhouse for all the keen gardeners.

The kitchen is fitted with an Ashgrove oak kitchen with granite worktops, Belfast style sink and a range of base and wall units providing ample cupboard and drawer space. There is a downstairs bathroom which has recently been updated and comprises a white suite with P shaped bath, low level WC and basin. The original bread oven allows extra storage space and is a lovely feature. The living room is a very impressive room with large windows and French doors which are handmade from oak by a local craftsman and overlook the gardens and paddock as well as original flagstone flooring. The room also offers high ceilings and a double fireplace with one side housing the multifuel burner and the other side currently being used as a wine store!

The cottage is approx. 200 yards from the B2220, and is approached over a shared tree lined driveway. There is good access to Crediton, Exeter & Barnstaple via the A377 which is approx. ¼ of a mile away at Morchard Road; where there is also a train station with regular trains to Barnstaple, Exeter & Beyond. The cottage adjoins a small working farm, and nearby, a public footpath with lovely walks through the adjoining farmland, up to Down St Mary and beyond, can be enjoyed.

PLEASE NOTE:

To the first floor, there are three good sized double bedrooms which enjoy views across the adjoining gardens and countryside as well as the shower room. In bedroom three, which is currently being used as a home office, there is an access hatch to the loft which is a substantial space with lighting, power and Velux
