Owners Comments

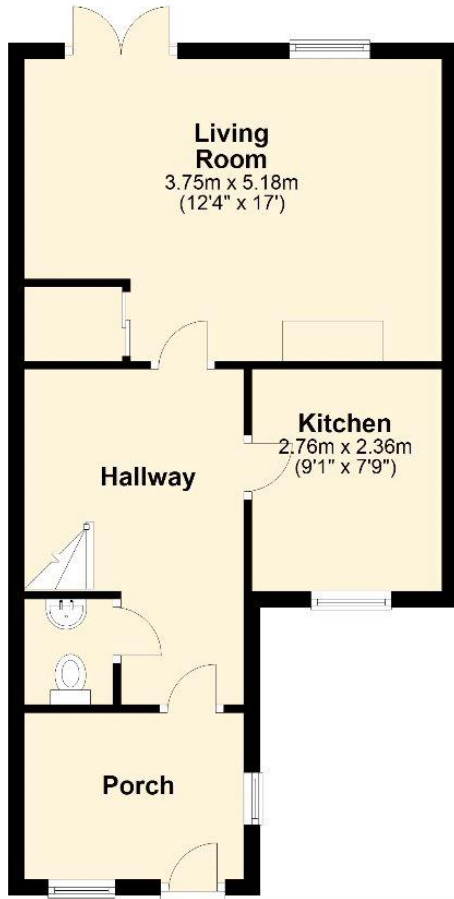

"We have truly cherished our time in this house, a warm and inviting family home. It's bathed in natural light, with the morning sun at the back and the afternoon sun flooding through the front. The house is easy to maintain and stays cozy throughout the year, featuring beautiful and practical wood flooring.

Storage is plentiful, with built-in wardrobes, bench seating, multiple sheds, and a large garage. Both the front and back gardens offer serene spaces to enjoy the peaceful village atmosphere and refreshing sea air.

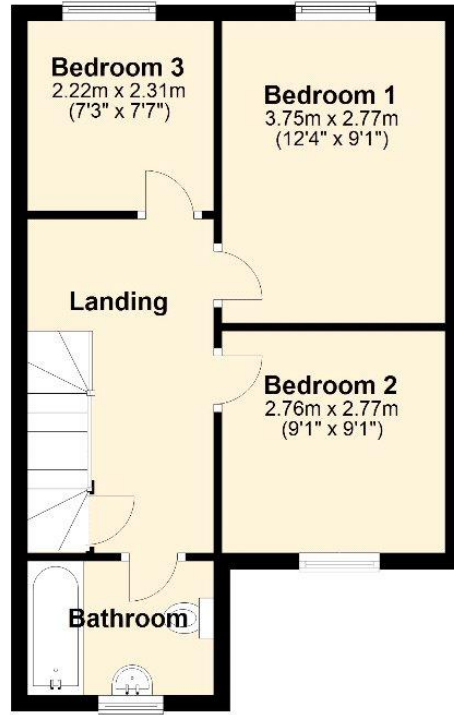

The Strete village community has been a delightful part of our experience here, enhancing our enjoyment of the property. The proximity to South Devon's stunning beaches has been a real highlight, from early morning swims to evening beach BBQs that make the beach feel like a private retreat. The sea views are a wonderful way to start each day, adding to the charm of this exceptional home."
