Upon entering the property, there is a welcoming entrance hall that offers ample storage space, perfect for coats, shoes, and other essentials.

The large living room, overlooking the High Street, is filled with natural light, creating a bright and airy atmosphere. The room features parquet flooring and a decorative fireplace. The updated kitchen is both practical and stylish, featuring modern fittings, and ample storage. A door from the kitchen leads to the rear courtyard area, offering a convenient outdoor space for al fresco dining, gardening, or simply enjoying the fresh air.

Moving to the first floor, you will find two double bedrooms, both offering generous proportions and a further single bedroom, which could also serve as a home office or guest room, depending on your needs.

The family bathroom on this level is well-sized and has been modernized to provide a clean and contemporary space, complete with essential amenities.

Outside there is an enclosed rear courtyard area with store shed and outside WC and further lawned garden with mature shrubs and hedging.

44 High Street benefits from a prime central location in the vibrant market town of Crediton. This lively town offers a variety of amenities, including shops, cafes, schools, and excellent transport links. With regular bus and train services to Exeter and beyond, commuting is convenient and straightforward.

This property is a rare find, offering a ready-made home with modern updates and period charm. Its central location, spacious layout, and recent improvements make it an appealing prospect for buyers looking for a comfortable and stylish residence.
