Also known as Green Parrot House, it is available to rent on a short let (6 months fixed possibly slightly longer). The property is a Grade II listed, circa 17th Century, timber framed property and has been beautifully refurbished over the last four years, including rewiring, extensive work to the roof, and new kitchen.

The landlords are open to tenants renting these out as short term holiday lets.

On the second floor are two further rooms, ideal for storage or play rooms. There are no windows or electrics in these rooms but they are otherwise fully converted.

Outside there is a charming, enclosed courtyard garden with a driveway for 3-4 cars beyond.

The property is currently also for sale. The rental term for six months is subject to extension on a periodic basis depending on the sale. Ideal for someone wanting a stop gap between sale and purchase.

A Security Deposit equal to five weeks' rent is payable prior to check in (£2307.69)

Affordability Threshold - earnings equal to or exceeding £60,000 per annum will be required to rent this property.
