A further staircase rises to the upper bedroom level whilst, remaining on this floor there are separate sitting and dining rooms and a large kitchen/breakfast room with plenty of storage units. The two double bedrooms and the bathroom on the upper floor are approached from their own landing. Outside there is a short drive with parking for one vehicle which leads to a generous single garage. This also has pedestrian access via a lobby, off the main accommodation, which also leads to a courtyard garden and to an excellent workshop/store. The properties border the cul-de-sac on three sides and the residents have an equal share of the freehold enabling them to maintain their own surrounds.
