DESCRIPTION

The property has been sympathetically updated and improved by the current owners including rewiring and replumbing - new radiators and bathrooms, a new kitchen, some new windows and a full relandscape carried out in the gardens putting in a large pond and water feature. The separate barn was subject to a complete rebuild in 2019 and has been built to the latest standards. Both the house and barn have water softeners. The property offers very flexible accommodation and entertaining space and is immaculately presented.

The modern kitchen has many spacious units, an Everhot range cooker, breakfast seating, large American-style fridge/freezer and expansive work surface area. This leads through to a large entertaining space with log burner at one end – currently set up as a dining room, this could also be a lovely drawing room. Off this room, to the right is a garden sitting room which could also be a dining area. There is access from here to a downstairs shower room and utility room.

To the front of the property is the central front door and entrance hall with stairs leading up to the bedrooms and down to a converted cellar, currently a tv/office room but could also be a great den/bedroom for a teenager. Either side of the entrance hall there are two sitting rooms both with log burners. One is currently a tv room, the other a more formal sitting room and both provide further entertaining or family spaces. Both rooms overlook the High Street and duck pond.

On the first floor are the bedrooms set around the spacious landing area. All three bedrooms are very light, spacious double rooms and the principle of the three has a dressing area with fitted wardrobes and a large, modern, ensuite bathroom.

The separate barn offers further accommodation with a double bedroom and ensuite shower room for guests or teenagers. There is a further room, currently used for a hot tub but which could be used as a hobby room, workshop or further sitting room. At the southern end is the garage with double doors accessed from the drive.

The gardens have been beautifully landscaped and includes terrace area, lawns with mature trees, further decked seating area and large ornamental pond. The gardens are private and enjoy good sunshine throughout the day.
