The property sits to the side of its plot, offering an opportunity, subject to planning consent, to extend and enlarge this wonderful family home.

As you approach the home you are greeted with ample off road parking for multiple vehicles both to the front, on a brick paved area enclosed by a rendered dwarf brick wall, and through gates on a shingle drive to the side of the property.

The attractive red brick elevations are highlighted by white features and a tiled storm porch.

The character feel continues in the hall, with a wooden floor which continues throughout much the ground floor.

To the right is a lounge with a bay window, feature fireplace, log burner style electric heater, and fitted alcove storage.

The cloakroom has been refurbished with character tiles and fittings.

The kitchen/diner is a large entertaining space which would benefit from some modernisation but is currently the heart of the house, offering substantial kitchen and family areas, with bifold doors leading out onto a wooden decked area and the garden beyond.

Upstairs, there are 3 bedrooms, 2 of which are double in size, and a re-fitted family bathroom which matches the cloakroom.

The garden is enclosed, private and mainly laid to lawn, and includes a brick chalet which was previously used as an office and has power, lighting, a vaulted ceiling, double glazed windows and double doors.

Broadstone provides an excellent range of shops including an M & S Food Hall, pubs and restaurants, a large recreation park, a sports complex and a championship golf course. There are 2 first schools, a middle school and, between Broadstone and Corfe Mullen, Corfe Hills secondary school.
