Description

The subject property, formally Barclays Bank, comprises ground and basement-level accommodation that has been stripped out by the current Landlord – therefore creating a blank canvas for potential future occupiers. The unit is double-fronted and benefits from a large, visible glass façade and rear windows to the rear providing additional light sources. The basement contains several separate rooms including the former concrete and steel vault – creating an interesting potential feature.

ACCOMMODATION: Total - 2,785 sq ft/258.7 sq m (GIA).

Location

Replingham Road is well-located in the heart of Southfields Village, generally popular with families and young professionals. Southfields Underground Station is moments away, offering District Line access into central London. The general area is populated with a mix of premium tenants, including Waitrose, Café Nero, Gails, and Franco Manca which service the affluent local residents. It is also the closest stop to the famous AELTC, home to the Wimbledon Tennis Championships. The summer festivities dramatically increase the level of passing trade creating an outstanding opportunity for tenants to increase revenues over this period.
